THE DAILY and WEEKLY HERALD has more than double the circulation of any other paper published in Southern California. Business men recognize it accordingly as the best advertising medium South of San Francisco.

THURSDAY,.....AUGUST 26, 1875.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

A heavy hail storm fell near Sioux City on Tuesday, doing much damage to the crops. The damage by frost about Green Bay has been greater than anticipated.

About Lexington, Michigan, the frost has done great damage.

The New York Herald believes that if De launo is retained the remainder of the Cabinet should resign.

Timothy Guy Phelps, Republican candidate for Governor, addressed a fair-sized audience in this city last evening.

Another failure is reported in New York.

The Independent speaks of BRIERLY as "United States Granger." This is a good joke on the grange. BRIERLY can gauge a barrel of whiskey or stock an Independent convention but he cannot tell to which end of a cart the horse should be hitched.

I know another very prominent man, who at another time, found 21 white American citizens, collected where Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office now stands, who demanded, and received from him, $125 each for their votes, and voted the ticket he gave them.—Capt. Clark's Letter to the Express.

Will Capt. CLARK please inform the public if this occurred in 1869 at which time the Post office was where Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office now is and Capt. CLARK was Post master.

A one mule power sheet called the Daily Independent, published at the expense of Mr. TEMPLE and Judge THOMPSON, says Mr. TEMPLE owns stock in the HERALD. We can assure the little concern that Mr. TEMPLE does not own a share of stock in the HERALD nor does the HERALD owe him a dollar. More than this Mr. TEMPLE never advanced or loaned the HERALD publishing company one dollar on which he did not receive one and one half per cent per month interest. This is his "liberality" in giving timely aid to the HERALD and we presume he has been equally "liberal" in aiding other enterprises.

JUDGE THOMPSON is credited with saying in his speech at San Jose that the average price of a vote in Los Angeles county is two dollars and a half. The Judge is a resident of this county and a candidate for office and therefore ought to know whereof he speaks. We are however inclined to the opinion that he has understated the market value of the commodity and we base our conclusion on the fact that Mr. TEMPLE's canvassers spent money enough two years ago to have purchased two thirds of the votes of the county at the Judges quotation, yet he was not elected. If however, the price of votes has fallen to the Judge's figures we think it probable that both Mr. TEMPLE and Mr. HOUGHTON will carry the county, for the Federal ring is spending a large amount of money to secure their election.

THERE is no doubt but that the industrious classes—the men who make the county and own it—are almost to a man, the advocates and supporters of the Democratic county ticket. It would be a wonder if sober thinking men were not the endorers of the Democratic nominees. They are by far the best in the field. They come up to the Jeffersonian test of honesty and capability and they stand on a platform of clearly defined principles. They are Democrats and assiduously advocate the sound old Democratic doctrine that the people are the sovereigns; the officers public servants. And, above all, these candidates go before the people on their own merit and the principles of their party. There is no equivocation, no misrepresentation, no sailing under false colors; no attempt to foist a party ticket on the people under the guise of independents.

JESTING aside, we will say to those who are ridiculing Judge THOMPSON's chances for Congress, that while we do not believe he has the remotest chance for election, yet he will poll many votes. In this county the Judge has too many warm friends who believe as they do that Mr. WIGGINTON's election is an assured fact, will, out of the regard and respect they bear the Judge, give him a handsome complimentary vote. The reports circulated by Mr. HOUGHTON's friends and especially by Colonel WARNER and General HOWARD, both of whom were defeated by the Judge in the Independent Congressional Convention, that he was nominated by railroad influence is so palpably unjust and so entirely without foundation, that it has made the Judge friends where none existed before these stories were circulated. We may also add that these slanderers have taken many votes from Mr. HOUGHTON.

WE are told by the TEMPLE-JONES-HOUGHTON organ that nearly all the new comers into this county will vote the Republican-Independent ticket because they desire retrenchment and reform. We cannot see where the weight of this argument come in. It is well known that the Republican-Independents are spending thousands of dollars to secure the county officers. If they succeed this money must come back and there is no way of getting it back except by drawing it out of the pockets of the people. The twenty dollar pieces with which these "retrenchment and reform" candidates are now buying up the worthless purchasable vote of the county must be recovered from the hard earnings of the laboring classes—men who are not for sale and whose votes cannot be purchased. It does not speak well for the good faith and honesty of purpose, of retrenchment and reform to see their hired canvassers paying out money for votes to secure their election.

An Injury to the County.

People at a distance who chance to read a copy of the Los Angeles Express and believe what they read, cannot avoid the conclusion that this county is in a miserable condition; that her people have been robbed by office holders; that they are at the mercy of rings and cliques and that the county is on the verge of bankruptcy. Away from home people do not understand that the cry for retrenchment and reform is but the campaign wail of a dozen chronic office seekers and their subsidized journals, and not a true statement of the case. The fact is and it will be testified to by every resident of this valley that Los Angeles county is to-day the most rapidly improving county in the State. Within the past eighteen months her population has almost doubled and her taxable property has doubled within that period. Wealthy men are investing their money here by the hundreds of thousands of dollars, something never done in a county whose public affairs are extravagantly conducted. If our public officers were the thieves and robbers which the Express would have his readers believe, in place of our present prosperity we should be groveling in debt; we could not note the rapid increase of population and we could not record the acquisition of men of wealth and influence. Such statements as the Federal office holders organ is daily sending forth cannot but work serious injury to our county abroad. They are false if it is true—false in word, spirit and inception—but they may be read by people who have not opportunities for learning the truth. All these falsehoods and slanders are sent forth for the sole purpose of maligning worthy men in order that untied and perhaps unworthy office seekers may be maintained at the expense of the people.

Selling Each Other Out.

The fact is apparent to all observers that the struggle of the Independents, so called, is a mere scramble for office and in their anxiety to secure place they are throwing off on each other with a shamefacedness that ought to bring the blush to the cheek of the most unscrupulous politician. With a few honorable exceptions these Republican-Independent candidates are electioneering each for himself without regard to the success of the other nominees. We have reports of this character from all parts of the county and so openly is this game of go-for-me-and-never-mind-the-rest carried on that voters are becoming dissatisfied with the selfish beggars and freely avow their determination not to vote for any of them. The electioneers of Mr. TEMPLE are notoriously conspicuous in their efforts to secure votes for him even though to do so they trade off the remainder of the ticket. It is hinted that there is a strong metallic argument used to obtain votes for Mr. TEMPLE and Mr. HOUGHTON. The Republican managers of the Independent ticket prefer to elect these two men even though success is only obtainable at the sacrifice of every other candidate on the ticket. Their reasons for this are plain. The election of HOUGHTON will be heralded as an Administration victory and will aid the campaign next year. Mr. TEMPLE's success is desired because he is a man of wealth and his money is needed to aid in defraying the expense of the approaching Presidential campaign. The sell out game is one of great danger for the reason that when it is discovered it turns the friends of the other candidates against the selfish schemers and loses them more votes than they gain by the trading off their associates on the ticket.

A Card from County Superintendent Peck.

EDITOR HERALD: I am informed that Mr. Wm. W. Jenkins says that he has received a card from H. N. Bolander, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, certifying that the State apportionment to each school census child in Los Angeles county, in the school year ending July 1st, 1875, was seven dollars and fifty-nine cents ($7 59); also, that Mr. Jenkins claims that the school children have not only not received their rightful apportionment, but have been defrauded out of it, and that he cannot see where the money has gone to. Further, that the Azusa, San Fernando, San Antonio, Silver, and other districts have not received the amounts due them. As County School Superintendent, I state that the above is a mistake—incorrect in every particular, except Mr. Bolander's statement, and could have been made only from ignorance or for some purpose to me unknown. Each school district has received every cent that it is entitled to, as will appear to any intelligent gentleman who will examine the books. No apportionment can be made except by the County Superintendent; neither can Mr. Rowan, County Treasurer, or any other, take school money except on my warrant. My accounts have been kept strictly to the inspection of the public at all times, and so far from wishing to avoid, I invite inspection.

At that time he gave a fictitious name, but was recognized and refused. Yesterday he entered the Police Court and took up a position near the prisoner's dock. Some one suspecting that he was there watching for Taylor to come to the dock, went out and informed Councilman Clark, who at once sent for O'Neal and asked him if he had any weapons on his person. O'Neal stated that he had, and produced a revolver, which was taken by the Councilman, who then placed O'Neal under arrest for having concealed weapons on his person. When questioned as to his purpose in carrying such a weapon, O'Neal admitted that he carried it for Taylor.

The Condition of the Crops Throughout the United States.

EASTERN NEWS.

Agriculture.

WASHINGTON, August 25th.—The Agricultural Department has issued the following crop report for August: The average condition of Spring wheat is 87. The condition of Winter wheat is not reported, but correspondents say that vast quantities, before being threshed or housed, were overtaken by rains and swept away by floods, or damaged in degrees varying from severe injury to utter ruin in the field, principally in the shock. The average condition of the corn crop in all the States is about 96. It would be over 100, were it not for damage on low lands by excessive rains, and the injury from that cause is likely to be over estimated. The average condition of the oat crop for the country is 91. Potatoes promise an extra crop, the average condition for all the States being about 104.

Wood of Kentucky made a lengthy speech in favor of a greenback rather than gold currency. Sidney Myers of Chicago advocated the sixty-five bond. The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were received with applause and adopted:

Resolved, 1st.—That the people owe to the Government at all times and in all emergencies, a loan of money adequate to the needs at a rate of interest so low as to be the least possible burden and to offer the least possible competition to private enterprise.

Second.—The Government owes to the people an absolutely safe and uniform currency, adapted to their varying needs, to the amount of a value not materially different from that of any other civilized nations.

THE PHELPS MEETING.

Republicans in Council.

The Last Funeral Notes.

Quite an audience gathered last evening in front of Temple Block to welcome Hon. T. G. Phelps, Republican candidate for Governor. The meeting was called to order by Gen. Bonton, who presented the following list of officers:

President, Hon. J. G. Eastman; Vice-Presidents, W. W. Robinson, A. G. Mappa, M. Keller, J. J. Carrillo, L. Litchberger, Major H. Hancock, Henry Osborn, F. Stanford, Don Manuel Requena, Gen. Phineas Banning, C. C. Lips, J. W. Haverstick, William Osborn, M. Whisler.

The President in taking the chair made a pertinent Republican speech, closing by introducing the orator of the evening.

We cannot reproduce the speech which was mainly devoted to a comparison of figures showing that our State and County governments are too expensive, and that in the matter of taxes this State is worse cursed than South Carolina. He showed that the expenses of State had increased from $1,146,000 in 1862 to $3,624,000 in 1873. The insane Asylum in 1862 cost $40,000, and in 1873 the expenses had increased to $222,000, while the number of inmates had only doubled.

The State Prison in 1862 cost $25,500, but in 1873 $148,000, though the increase in numbers was only 30 per cent. He claimed that no government was pure that was not economical. Any tax on the people beyond the amount necessary to carry on an economical government was legal robbery. His remedy for all these evils was: 1st. Do away with sinecure offices and useless commissions. 2d. Reduce the pay of officers to the level of other employments. 3d. Do away with the vicious system of having two or three salaries attached to one office.

His speech throughout was terribly severe on the extravagance and corruption that have cursed the Booth administration, and showed up Booth's pretensions to reform as the workings of a demagogue. During its delivery, we noticed that our independent friends, who are prominent in the unholy alliance with the Republican party for the purpose of getting the fat offices, looked melancholy. Altogether, it will be a good thing to pierce the frail structure called the Independent party in this county before election day, and we would advise our friends of that party to leave the sinking ship and let her go down with the wire-pullers and office-seekers only.

LETTER FROM DOWNEY.

EDITOR HERALD: Evidence of this youthful city's prosperity is apparent on every hand. Notwithstanding the high price of lumber, the sound of the saw and hammer may be constantly heard. The great want is cheaper freight, that building material may not cost so much. Fences are needed by farmers who cannot afford to pay present prices for lumber to make them. Scarcely anything would add more to the prosperity of this village and of the surrounding country than a reduction in the price of lumber. Strangers coming here are apt to think that too much is asked for land. This is not the case, except, perhaps, in very few instances. In general it is worth more than the price put on it. Recently an old settler gave $1,000 for ten acres of land. He knows its value and considers it cheap. But politics is the all-absorbing theme. A few words will suffice to express the feeling here. It is only necessary to state that it is unchanged. Failure is decidedly the term to apply to the meeting last Friday evening. It was worse than that. The speakers, COL. PEEL AND GEN. HOWARD, labored earnestly, but apparently with the least possible effect. "Twas throwing words away," Houghton's is a lost cause. He has been tried, and the people are willing to risk a change. In the midst of the General's speech—presumably toward its close—two enterprising young Americans withdrew to the rear of a store to settle a little misunderstanding in the old pugilistic style. The result of the adjourned to witness the affair and forgot to return. Seeing how he was wasting his powder, the General concluded his speech and the two wended their way to their rooms, sadder and it is hoped, better men.

Downey, August 25th.

The Colored Voters.

On Monday evening, August 15th, the colored citizens of Los Angeles met in mass meeting to determine upon the course they should pursue in the present political campaign.

The meeting was organized by the election of J. Fletcher Gordon as Chairman and J. M. Redding as Secretary.

The Chairman very briefly stated the object of the meeting, when, on motion, the following Executive Committee was elected to attend to the political affairs of the colored people of this city: J. Fletcher Gordon, Chairman; J. M. Redding, Secretary; Philip Pearson, George Van Buren, Lewis Green.

On motion, the colored people agreed to support the Republican State and Congressional ticket, leaving the county ticket to the action of the voters.

The committee were instructed to look after the registration of the colored voters particularly and of others generally.

The name of Lue Green has been dropped from the committee for non-attendance upon its sessions.

J. FLETCHER GORDON, Chm'n.
J. M. REDDING, Secretary.
Los Angeles, August 25, 1875.

The Vahle case was ended last night by a verdict of guilty of manslaughter. Vahle deliberately shot his wife at the Ballona recently and the result is stated above. In Santa Barbara lately Mrs. Norton was convicted of murder in the first degree for participating in the killing of her husband. The question now arises, Is the life of a husband any more valuable in the judgment of a jury than the life of a wife?
